

Centre for Scottish and Celtic Studies
University of Glasgow
Seminar Series
2020-2021

All seminars and lectures associated with the Centre this session will be delivered on Zoom. Each event (unless otherwise indicated) will commence at 5.30pm and is free and open to everyone. Full details for each event are available through the CSCS Eventbrite page at the following link, where guests can simply register for access to Zoom details: www.eventbrite.co.uk/o/centre-for-scottish-and-celtic-studies-31010711015

3 November 2020	Kevin Gallagher and George Smith, 'Duntocher, Dumbarton and the 1820 Scottish Rebellion'
17 November 2020	Karen McAulay, 'Late Summer in the Hebrides: Alexander Campbell's Song-Collecting for Albyn's Anthology'
26 November 2020	Annual Thomas Muir of Huntershill Lecture, hosted by the National Library of Scotland at 5pm Gerry Carruthers, 'Thomas Muir of Huntershill on Slavery: a rediscovered legal thesis' For further details and Eventbrite link, see https://www.nls.uk/events
1 December 2020	Tanja Bueltmann, 'Scotland's global diaspora: a story of migration, identity and ethnic association'
8 December 2020	Angus Matheson Annual Lecture Simon Taylor, 'Scottish Place-Names: Past, Present and Future' For further details on this lecture please contact Prof Thomas Clancy, Thomas.clancy@glasgow.ac.uk
15 December 2020	The Form and Fabric of Early Medieval Britain - reflections on the archaeology of Ewan Campbell Series.
8 January 2021	200 years of the 1820 Scottish Radical Uprising, Symposium, Trades Hall, Glasgow* See https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/200-years-of-the-1820-scottish-radical-uprising-tickets-94633616695
26 January 2021	Edward J. Cowan, 'The Arctic Scots in the Search for the Northwest Passage 1818-1860'
9 February 2021	Kirsteen McCue, 'Robert Burns's Songs for George Thomson'
23 February 2021	Elva Johnston, 'Scottish Saints in Ireland and Beyond'
9 March 2021	The Form and Fabric of Early Medieval Britain - reflections on the archaeology of Ewan Campbell Series.
23 March 2021	Annual John Durkan Memorial Lecture Michael Lynch, 'Revisiting the Scottish Reformation: a search for answers or for the right questions?'

* this event is subject to change due to the current COVID crisis.